DETAILED ACTION

Request for Continued Examination (RCE)

The RCE filed on September 25, 2007 has been processed. A non-final follows.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

Claims 1-14, 21, and 29-36 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Jacoby (2002/0107746) in view of Khan (2001/0056395).

Jacoby discloses the invention substantially as claimed, as set forth in the previous Office Action mailed on June 25, 2007. Jacoby does not disclose determining if the user wants assistance with a bid in the on-line auction or the user making the bid in the on-line auction based on the assistance. Khan teaches a method and corresponding apparatus and storage medium for internet bargaining comprising determining if the user wants assistance with a bid in the on-line auction or the user making the bid in the on-line auction based on the assistance (para. 65 and 163). It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to incorporate the teachings of Khan within Jacoby for the motivation of further assisting the user in making the best bid.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-14, 21, and 29-36 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
